Internship Requirements

There are two general requirements for the internship

Requirement 1:

Satisfactory completion of work at an approved position. Approximately 90 hours of work is expected, or 6-8 hours per week when class is in session. An evaluation form is sent to your supervisor at the end of the semester to gauge your performance.

Requirement 2:

Satisfactory completion of two written paper assignments. The first of these assignments is due Thursday, October 15 and the second is due Monday, December 7. There is a 5% per day late penalty (up to 25% maximum) for all late papers. There are TWO ways to complete this requirement.

*NOTE: the internship work may not be applied to any other internship program. In other words, you cannot use the internship hours toward another academic program of study other than POLI 3901.

Method 1

Paper 1: Mid-term journal. At mid-term, the student will submit a 1000 word (4 page) essay explaining what was learned about politics from experiences at that point.

Paper 2: Final paper. At the end of the semester, the student will submit a 1500 word (6 page) research paper on a topic related to the internship duties and using examples from the internship experience to support the conclusions.

Method 2

1. Read TWO books from the provided list and write a detailed summary of what the book was about. Make sure you include the central argument of the book, the theoretical context or setting for the book, the manner in which the investigation is undertaken (surveys, case histories, etc), the evidence presented, and the conclusions drawn from the book. Include any critiques of the book as well. These papers should be 1250 words each (5 pages) and are due on the dates listed above.
